MA TESOL Open House
Monday, April 15, 2019
Humanities 485

12:00 – 12:30  Welcome Mixer

12:30 – 2:00  TESOL Talk: LGBTQ+ Identity in the ESOL Classroom

Kate Frei, City College of San Francisco
Evan Kaiser, College of San Mateo
Todd Windisch, College of San Mateo

In this talk, three teachers offer insight into teachers’ and students’ experiences of LGBTQ+ topics in the ESOL classroom. They will summarize their research projects on these topics before sharing “snapshots from the classroom” and some corresponding materials at various levels (low-intermediate noncredit and pre-transfer academic writing). Participants will leave with a better understanding of how LGBTQ+ topics might be facilitated in the classroom and suggestions for making the classroom more inclusive. Participants will be invited to ask questions and share examples from their own teaching contexts.

2:00 – 3:30  Conversation with MATESOL faculty, staff, and students

3:30 – 4:00  SFSU Campus Tour (optional)

4:00 – 6:50  Classroom observation of ENG 730 (Humanities 579)

ENG 730: Introduction to Graduate Study in TESOL
Dr. Maricel Santos

English 730 introduces MA TESOL candidates into the field of teaching English has a second or foreign language including principles and current practices in lesson design, teaching language skills, classroom management, and assessment.

Applying to graduate school is a major milestone. Join us to see if we’re the right program for you. Come for any part of the open house.
